Survey questions

Please email this completed survey to bany@student.unsw.edu.au - Thanks!

1. Did the materials promote sufficient student interaction?
2. What were the best parts of the course (key strengths)? Worst parts?
3. How can we improve the course and the materials?
4. How easy was the subject to teach?
5. Which parts of the course were student most interested in? Which areas did the want to learn more about?
6. Did the course materials explain concepts clearly:
    - For the teacher?
    - For the students?
7. How was the assignment & the responses provided by the students? Did student have any complaints?
8. How well suited was the level of difficulty of the materials? Were any parts particularly difficult or too easy?
9. Would experimental kits have been useful or necessary to deliver the experiment lessons? Would specific kits have been useful?
10. How could the lecture slides be improved?
11. Was the material appropriate as judged by the teacher?
12. Could the students complete the worksheets themselves, given the material provided in lectures?
13. Did students ask for any specific assistance or additional materials (e.g. worked solutions to worksheet-style questions)?
14. For more difficult questions from students, would the teacher require more detail in the reference material (teacher's resources)?
15. Was the website list useful in teaching the course? Did any students utilize them?
16. Did the teacher ever utilize them?
17. Was there too much material? How much of the provided material was actually covered? Which sections were selected in this case?